Races Dining

La Brasserie

The Parisian style La Brasserie is a seriously stylish setting and has long been the place to be seen both before and after the equine action on a raceday.

La Brasserie offers an eclectic à la carte menu with sublime cocktails and canapes available throughout the day and into the evening. The à la carte menu is available from 4.30pm before evening race meetings. Open daily.

The Arkle Bar and Lounge

The Arkle Bar and Lounge is ideal for those looking for an elegant venue to relax with friends and discuss the day's events. Perfect for pre-races cocktails, the bar is stocked with interesting malts, vintage ports and a wide range of liqueurs, not to mention Chester's largest selection of champagnes! Morning coffee, light lunch and traditional afternoon tea are also available. Open daily.

Simon Radley at The Chester Grosvenor

The perfect way to round off a glamorous day at the races. This Michelin starred restaurant, named in honour of its illustrious Chef, is renowned throughout the country for its creative menus crafted from fresh local produce and one of the most extensive cellars in England. Open for dinner from Tuesday to Saturday.

Three course à la carte menu £69 per person
Eight Course Tasting Menu £90 per person

Menus are available at Reception.
