

Tea Menu

English Breakfast Tea

A blend of Ceylon and Assam Tea. Full-bodied with a coppery coloured brightness.

Earl Grey Tea

Large leaf black China tea scented with Bergamot Oil.

Darjeeling Leaf (Quality)

The champagne of teas, from West Bengal India. Fruity, floral aroma. Thin-bodied light coloured. It is widely acknowledged to be the finest of teas.

Gunpowder

Tightly rolled green-grey leaves which unfurl when infused. This tea possesses a slightly fruity flavour.

Lapsang Souchong

A traditional Lapsang Souchong has been smoked over a wood fire giving it a smoky flavour. The tea is dark in colour.

Chai Spice

A mixture of Assam tea, Cardamom, Ginger, Cinnamon, Cloves, Ginseng, Gingko and Rooibos.

Moroccan Mint

Dried Moroccan mint leaves mixed with China green tea. An excellent digestive after a meal or a refreshing pick-me-up.

Chamomile Flowers

The best chamomile tea comes from brewing the whole flowers to produce a beautiful yellow colour and a sweet, surprisingly juicy flavour.

Red Fruit Tea

A fruit blend consisting of Hibiscus, Rosehip, Apple pieces, and Orange peel.

Jasmine

This light delicate tea with its floral aroma is an ideal afternoon or evening tea, best served without milk.

A Little History...

First created by the Duchess of Bedford in 1830, to stave off her mid-afternoon hunger pangs, afternoon tea was firmly established as a British staple in Victorian England. Tea has been served daily at The Chester Grosvenor since 1882 and we take the tradition of "taking tea" very seriously.

In the elegant and comfortable surroundings of The Arkle Bar and Lounge, you shall be welcomed with freshly prepared sandwiches, home baked scones, delicate French pastries and fancies. This sumptuous selection shall be accompanied by the finest of teas, coffees or herbal infusions, to create that most civilised of experiences, the traditional afternoon tea.
